

The Danish Energy Agency invites interested candidates to participate in the information meeting regarding the NECCS funds

The Danish Energy Agency has opened the second round of market dialogue on the funds for negative emissions via CCS (the NECCS fund). The Agency invites interested candidates to an information meeting about the second round of the market dialogue.

The information meeting regarding the NECCS funds will provide the participants with a thorough introduction to the DEA's overall considerations regarding the deployment of the NECCS fund.

The participants are welcomed to ask questions during the information meeting, however the DEA encourages participants to submit written questions by sending an email to llpe@ens.dk prior to the information meeting.

The information meeting will take place on Wednesday 26 April 2023 at 13.00-15.00 in the Danish Energy Agency, Carsten Niebuhrs Gade 43, 1577 Copenhagen V, meeting room "Mødesal".
