

Program for technical dialogue on site-investigations for Thor offshore wind farm tender, 13th May 2019

Time	Subject
1230 - 1245	Introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Short introduction to Thor and the overall tender process Astrid Rathe, Head of Division, Center for Renewable Energy, DEA
1245 – 1310	Aim of the technical dialogue – de-risking and level playing field for potential bidders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The role of site-investigations and the technical dialogue Area of site-investigation, state-of-affairs on the area Jeppé Lundbæk, Project Manager Thor tender, DEA
1310 – 1415	Program for seabed investigations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Overview of proposed activities related to geophysical surveys and geotechnical investigations, cable route surveys and desk-based assessments of archaeology and UXO risk. Methodologies, detailed scope plans and expected products. Jens Colberg-Larsen, Technical Expert, Energinet
1415 – 1440	Coffee break
1440 – 1510	MetOcean <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Wind, wave and current estimation, expected methods, models and deliveries Anders Sørrig Mouritzen, Consultant, C2Wind
1510 - 1530	EIA consenting process <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Status on EIA consenting process Dijana Dmitruk, Legal Advisor, DEA
1530 – 1600	Environmental investigations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proposed methods and scope for environmental assessment Stine Rabech Nielsen, Consent Manager, Energinet
1600 - 1615	Meeting closure <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Wrap up of conference, questions, next steps, etc.