

Note regarding update of the material regarding the Site Ice Conditions for Hesselø South

Kontor/afdeling

Havvind

Dato

20-05-2026

This note explains why the delivery ID 2106 has been updated with a supplementary technical note.

The Sea Ice Conditions Assessment has been updated in the public data directory. A supplementary technical note has been added to the original report, documenting selected updates while preserving the original report structure. Sections without changes are explicitly marked, while revised sections contain the updated text, tables and figures. Changes are limited to wind-ice drift directional misalignment and directional wind distribution. The document will be reviewed by the certifier.
